

My personal telephone is for my convenience. I pay for the services. I do not consider it to be a platform for sales people, etc. I resent their intrusion of my privacy. If I am interested in buying products or services, I want to initiate the contact. I have been very, very satisfied with the considerable reduction of unwanted solicitation calls. Please....allow the residents of NJ to enjoy the absence of intruding solicitation calls in our homes.